

Final Term May 2017

GEOGRAPHY : REVISION SHEET GRADE 5

SECTION A:

Direction: Multiple Choice Questions:

1 What is a capital city?

(A) It is a city where the main market is located

(B) It is a city where the government of the country meets

(C) It is a city that has a good network of roads and railways

2. What is the average population of Kenya?

(A) 29 millions

(B) 28 millions

(C) 30 millions

3. What is the largest country in South America?

(A) Argentina

(B)Uruguay

(C) Brazil

4. The capital city of Brazil is -----

(A) Sao Paulo

(B) Brasilia

(C) Rio de Janeiro

5. What is the average population of Tokyo

(A) About 5million

(B) About 10millions

(C) About 8millions

(6) What is Drought?

(A) It is a period of exceptionally dry weather

(B) It is a period of exceptionally rainy weather

(C) It is a period of snow fall

(7) What are Monsoons?

(A) They are winds that blow in the Atlantic ocean

(B) They are winds that blow in the Pacific Ocean

(C) They are winds that blow in the Indian Ocean

(8) Reservoirs are _____

(A) It is a large well used to store water

(B) It is an artificial lake used to store water

(C) It is an artificial well used to carry water for domestic purpose

(9) What is flood?

(A) It is a situation where a river over flows its banks

(B) It is a situation where a river a river meets the sea

(C) It is a point where a river separate into branches

(10) What is the capital of Japan?

(A) Yokohama

(B) Nagasaki

(C) Tokyo

(11) What is a coast?

(A) A coast is a land near a stream.

(B) A coast is a land near the sea

(C) A coast is a land in a valley

(12) Polders are defined as _____

(A) Fertile lands used for the cultivation of crops

(B) Barren land in the desert

(C) Lands used for construction of houses

(13) What is a sea wall?

(A) It is a wall build to prevent fishermen from catching fish

(B) It is a wall build to protect the waves from damaging the coast

(C) It is a wall build to prevent runoff from polluting the coast

(14) A place where ships can be loaded or unloaded is called _____

(A) An Airport

(B) A runway

(C) A Sea port

(15) _____ is a name given to a shanty town in Brazil

(A) Favela

(B) Brasilia

(C) Belo Horizonte

(16) What are sand dunes?

(A) They are heaps of mud piled up by runoff

(B) They are heaps of dry sand piled up by wind

(C) They heaps of gravel piled up by heavy trucks

(17) What is a wind?

(A) Wind is the air that blows in the Amazon rainforest

(B) Wind is the air that blows in the Indian Ocean

(C) Wind is a breeze or natural air blowing in the atmosphere

(18) The two types of grass that grows on a sand dune are called

(A) Marram and shrubs

(B) Bahama and shrubs

(C) Marram and Bahama

(19) The following is an importance of sand dunes.

(A) They are used for the cultivation of crops

(B) They are used for golf courses

(C) They are used for irrigation

(20) What is an Estuary?

(A) It is a broadened "V" shape of a river approaching the sea

(B) It is a point where two rivers meet

(B) It is the cyclic rise and fall of sea level caused by the gravitational pull of the moon and sun

(21) Fish farming is defined as _____

(A) The rearing of fish for consumption

(B) The rearing of fish for commercial purpose

(C) The catching of fish by fishermen

(22) _____ is an example of mineral found in the sea

(A) Aluminum

(B) Iron and steel

(C) Oil and gas

SECTION B: TRUE OR FALSE

(1) Sewage is the waste materials and liquids from houses and factories, carried away in drains TRUE

(2) Favela is a major town in Brazil. FALSE

(3) A place where ships can be loaded and unloaded is called a sea port. TRUE

(4) Obese is a word used to describe people who are very skinny. FALSE

(5) Doctors usually call complaints that result from overeating as diseases of nature. FALSE

(6) Salt pans are small hollow near the sea which are used for obtaining salt by evaporation. TRUE

(7) Drifting trawling and purse-seining are the three methods used in catching fish. TRUE

- (8) Tokyo and Nairobi are two major cities in Brazil. FALSE
- (9) The handing over of some powers of government to a regional assembly or parliament is called devolution. TRUE
- (10) A shanty town is an area of a city where people have build their own houses from original material. TRUE
- (11) A capital city is where the government of a country meets. TRUE
- (12) Groynes are iron fences that run down the beach into the sea. FALSE
- (13) A barrage is an artificial gateway build to stop very high tides from pushing up the estuary and flooding the surrounding area. TRUE
- (14) Fishing is the catching of fish to be used only for consumption. FALSE
- (15) The name given the disease that affect potato is called potato blight. TRUE
- (16) Transport is defined as the means of taking people from one place to another by doing exercise. TRUE
- (17) Malnourishment is a situation where there is not enough food to eat that can provide a balance diet. TRUE
- (18) America and Canada are example of countries that have suffered major famine in history. FALSE
- (19) Drought is a period of exceptionally rainy weather. FALSE
- (20) Monsoon is winds that blow in the Atlantic Ocean. FALSE
- (21) A delta is defined as an area of flat land at the mouth of a river made up of mud dumped by the river. TRUE
- (22) Artificial lake used to store water is called a river lake. FALSE

SECTION C: Short Questions and answers.

(1) What is a developed country? It is a country that has achieved a certain level of industrialization and economics performance with modern roads, schools, hospitals and factories.

(2)What is famine? It is a severe shortage of food that generally affect a large number of people over wide area.

(3)What is the cause of pollution along the coast? Human waste from settlements is carried away in drains but finishes up in the sea

(4) What is a delta? It is an area of flat land at the mouth of a river made up of mud dumped there by the river

(5) Define devolution; The handing over of some powers of the government to regional assembly or parliament

(6) What is a cliff? It is a coastal feature made of rocks or soil to prevent the sea from flooding or flowing into the land.

(7) Polders are; fertile lands used for the cultivation of crops

(8) What are salt-pans? They are small hollows near the sea which are used for obtaining salt by evaporation

(9) What is an estuary? It is the "V" shape of a river approaching the sea

(10) What are tides? Tides are the cyclic rise and fall of the sea level caused by the gravitational pull of the sun and moon